Topic / Issue: LAP Partnership Agreement

SYNOPSIS: The Yakima Police Department (YPD) has purchased a mobile application, Mobile Lethality Assessment Program (LAP) from Forseti Software. The app helps officers when investigating a domestic violence situation to determine if there is lethality potential. This app replaces a lengthy paper lethality assessment. YPD has made this app available to the UGPD at no charge for the next two years.

RECOMMENDATION: Approve ordinance authorizing the City Manager to sign an MOU with the City of Yakima to provide access to the LAP and to authorize the City Manager to sign the Forseti Joiner Agreement and the Forseti End User Agreement.

LEGAL REVIEW: Reviewed by the City Attorney

FINANCIAL REVIEW: There is no cost for the first two years of the agreement as the City of Yakima has paid for the app and is offering access to us free of charge. At the end of the two years if we choose to continue to use the app we could enter into a successor agreement.

Memorandum of Understanding Agency LAP Partnership Agreement

I. Introduction

THIS INTERLOCAL Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is to establish a working agreement between Law Enforcement Agencies (LEA) in Yakima County for implementing the Lethality Assessment Program 2.0 – Maryland Model multi-jurisdiction subscription.

AGREEMENT. The LEA parties to this MOU agree to the following terms in exchange for access to the Lethality Assessment Program 2.0 (LAP):

- 1. LEA will work cooperatively with the Coordinating Agency, the City of Yakima (COY), and the Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence, to implement the LAP Model and provide domestic violence services to victims.
- 2. Sign the Forsetti Joinder Agreement and abide by the End User Agreement (incorporated by reference into this agreement, see attachment A).
- 3. Use LAP model "as is" including utilizing the OVW-approved train-the-trainer curriculum and lethality screen tool.
- 4. Participate in LAP training and meetings when offered by COY, for the purpose of bringing back pertinent statewide information to the local team.
- 5. Upload required LAP data/screens, including, if possible, to Forsetti's H.A.R.T database, in a timely manner.
- Attend quarterly LAP meetings for the purpose of sharing positive feedback about the LAP process and specific implementers, troubleshooting any process or system issues before they become habits, and sharing information about related issues (e.g., risk factors, predominant aggressor, and sharing trends in process or data).
- Be available to meet with the Coordinating Agency, Domestic Violence Service Programs, Law Enforcement Agencies, and other LAP partners to share information about trends in domestic violence, programmatic changes, further needs for victims, etc.
- 8. The Domestic Violence Service Program, the LEA, and the COY affirm the importance of providing victims with options for confidential services and support. All services provided by the Domestic Violence Service Program to the victim will be kept confidential except in the following circumstance. If the victim consents to information shared with the Law Enforcement Agency and the COY, then the Domestic Violence Service Program will obtain informed consent for the release of the information. When releases of information are required, they will be written, informed, and reasonably time limited.

- 9. No party shall have the power or authority to create any obligation on behalf of the other, either expressed or implied. No party is responsible for the manner in which the other party conducts its operations and the parties' officers, agents, and representatives shall not be construed as employees, agents, or representatives of the other parties for any purpose.
- 10. The parties to this MOU hereby acknowledge that the acts performed in furtherance of this MOU by officers, agents, or employees shall be deemed conclusively for a public and governmental purpose and all of the immunities from liability enjoyed by the parties when acting through their officers, agents or employees for a public or governmental purpose within their respective jurisdiction shall be enjoyed by the parties.
- 11. If any provision of this MOU shall be deemed invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement, to the extent practicable, shall remain in full force and effect.
- 12. Any party to this MOU shall have the right to terminate it by providing 30 days written notice to the other.
- 13. Each party agrees that they have liability insurance to cover their operations and each party is responsible for their own compliance with the Forsetti End User Agreement.
- 14. In the event that one of the parties violates the Forsetti End User Agreement, whether intentionally, negligently, through an error, or omission, the violating party agrees to protect, defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the other parties of this agreement, their elected officials, officers, employees, agents, and volunteers from any and all claims, demands, losses, liens, liabilities, penalties, fines, lawsuits, and other proceedings and all judgments, awards, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) resulting from the breach of the Forsetti End User Agreement. Each party will have the discretion to hire representation of their choice. Nothing contained in this Section or this MOU shall be construed to create a right of indemnification in any third party
- 15. This MOU is executed in Multiple counterparts, each one of which shall be deemed an original for each party.
- 16. Signatures and copies of signatures on this MOU transmitted through e-mail, facsimile, or other electronic means shall have the same effect as original signatures.
- 17. This MOU shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington. Any action concerning this contract shall be brought in the Superior Courts of Yakima County.
- 18. Each party shall approve this MOU by resolution, ordinance or otherwise pursuant to the laws of the governing body of each party. located and doing business at: 102 W. Ahtanum Rd. Union Gap, WA 98903

Summary

FORSETI END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA)

1. Grant for License for Registered User

Forseti, LLC ("Forseti"), grants Customer, as defined below, a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, terminable license to use the Forseti Bundle with which this EULA is distributed, which includes, but is not limited to the computer software and any documentation files accompanying the software, and any on-line or electronic documentation (collectively the "Software"). The Software shall be used only by you, only for your own internal business use and not for the benefit of any other person or entity, provided that you may transfer the Software to other hardware (computer, mobile phones, tablets, etc.) you own. This EULA does not give you any rights to any updates or upgrades to the Software or to any extensions or enhancements to the Software developed by Forseti at any time in the future.

2. Confidentiality

For the purposes of the EULA, "Confidential Information" means any business, technical, or other data, materials, documents, and other information that either Party discloses to the other Party, in writing, orally, or by any other means, including disclosures like computer programs, code, algorithms, data, know-how, formulas, processes, ideas, inventions (whether patentable or not), schematics and other technical, business, financial, and product development plans, names and expertise of employees and consultants, and customer lists.

Unless required to disclose by applicable law, Forseti will not disseminate or share any personally identifiable information or client identifying sensitive data entered onto the Forseti software system by the Customer. All personally identifiable information will remain confidential with restricted access granted only to those the Customer deems appropriate or those with a need to know. For the purposes of the EULA, the Software Documentation and all source code, object code, data, and other aspects of the Forseti proprietary components of the Software and Feed Service are and will be Forseti's Confidential Information, regardless of whether it is marked as such.

You acknowledge that the Software contains proprietary trade secrets of Forseti, and you hereby agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Software using at least as great a degree of care as you use to maintain the confidentiality of your own most confidential information. You agree to reasonably communicate the terms and conditions of this Software EULA to those persons employed by you who utilize the Software, and to use reasonable best efforts to ensure their compliance with such terms and conditions, including, without limitation, not knowingly permitting such persons to use any portion of the Software for the purpose of deriving its source code.

3. Ownership

You have no ownership rights in the Software. The Software is licensed to you, not sold. You have a license to use the Software as long as this EULA remains in full force and effect. Ownership of the Software and all intellectual property rights therein shall always remain with Forseti. Any other use of the Software by any person, business, corporation, government organization or any other entity other than you is strictly forbidden and is a violation of this EULA.

The Software contains materials that are protected by United States Copyright Law, trade secret law, and by international treaty provisions. This includes all titles, images, text, and applets incorporated into the Software. All rights not granted to you herein are expressly reserved by Forseti. You may not remove any proprietary notice of Forseti from any copy of the Software.

4. Audit Rights

You agree that, unless such right is waived in writing by Forseti, Forseti shall have the right, upon fifteen (15) days' notice to You, to audit Your use of the Forseti Software for compliance with any limitations on Your use of the Software that are set forth herein. You agree to provide Forseti with the necessary access to the Software to conduct such an audit either (i) remotely, or (ii) if remote performance is not possible, at Your facilities, during normal business hours and no more than one (1) time in any twelve (12) month period. In the event any such audit reveals that You have used the Software in excess of the applicable quantitative limitations, you agree to promptly pay to Forseti an amount equal to the difference between the fees actually paid and the fees that You should have paid to remain in compliance with such quantitative limitations. This Section 4 shall survive for a period of two (2) years from the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

5. Restrictions

Except to the extent expressly permitted by applicable law, and to the extent that Forseti is not permitted by that applicable law to exclude or limit the following rights: (i) you may not publish, display, disclose, rent, lease, modify, rename, or create derivative works based on the Software or any part thereof; (ii) you may not loan, distribute or allow use of the Software through any timesharing service, service bureau or network other than your own personal business network; (iii) you may not reverse engineer, decompile, translate, adapt, or disassemble the Software, nor shall you otherwise attempt to discover and create the source code from the object code of the Software. Before you exercise any rights that you believe to be entitled to based on mandatory law, you shall provide Forseti with thirty (30) days' prior written notice at help@forseti.io and provide all reasonably requested information to allow Forseti to assess your claim and, at Forseti's sole discretion, to provide alternatives that reduce any adverse impact on Forseti's intellectual property or other rights.

You may not export or re-export the Software except in compliance with the United States Export Administration Act and the related rules and regulations and similar non-U.S. government restrictions, if applicable. The Software is deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" pursuant to DFAR Section 227.7202 and FAR Section 12.212(b), as applicable. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performing, displaying, or disclosing of the Software by the U.S. Government shall be governed solely by the terms of this EULA. In addition, you agree and certify that you will not ship, transfer, or export the Software, directly or indirectly, to any country in violation of the U.S. Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control's regulations.

6. Termination & Notice

This EULA is effective until it is terminated. You may terminate this EULA with a 60-day prior notice by destroying or returning to Forseti all copies of the Software in your possession or under your control. Forseti may terminate this EULA for any reason, including, but not limited to, if Forseti finds that you have violated any of the terms of this EULA. Upon notification of termination, you agree to destroy or return to Forseti all copies of the Software and to certify in writing that all known copies, including backup or archival copies, have been destroyed. All provisions relating to confidentiality, proprietary rights, and non-disclosure shall survive the termination of this Software EULA.

All notices to Forseti shall be in writing and shall be made either via e-mail, conventional U.S. mail or overnight mail. Notices to Forseti must be sent to the attention of Customer Service at help@forseti.io, if by e-mail, or at Forseti, LLC, 4808 East Rogers Lane, San Tan Valley, AZ 85140 if by conventional or overnight mail. Notices to you may be sent either to the e-mail address or to the conventional mail address, if you supplied it to Forseti or posted as a notice on our Web site located at www.forseti.io.

Any notices or communication under this EULA will be deemed delivered to the party receiving such communication: (1) two business days after deposit with a commercial overnight carrier, with written verification of receipt; (2) five business days after the mailing date, if sent by conventional U.S. mail, return receipt requested; or (3) on the delivery date if transmitted by confirmed e-mail.

- 6.2. Conditions. Forseti must: (a) provide Customer with all reasonable assistance, and (b) give Customer sole control of the defense and settlement of the matter, provided that, unless such settlement unconditionally releases Forseti of all liability, Customer may not settle any matter without Forseti's written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

7. Forseti Rights

7.1. Redacted Data. Forseti may act, in its sole and absolute discretion, for any reason or for no reason, to resell, disclose, reproduce, distribute, or otherwise use the Software and "Redacted

- 7.4. If Customer expects to derive a financial gain, advantage, or benefit from its use of the Software or any data and/or information, including, Customer Content and redacted data, Customer shall inform Forseti by written notice of its intent to use the Software and/or data and information. Forseti shall be entitled to compensation for Customer's use thereof. Both parties agree to enter into a future agreement for the compensation of Forseti prior to the Customer using the Software or any data and/or information, including redacted data, in a way that may lead to financial gain, advantage, or benefit for the Customer.

8. Limitation of Liability

- 8.1. Consequential Damages Disclaimer. IN NO EVENT WILL FORSETI BE LIABLE TO CUSTOMER OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF BUSINESS, LOSS OF PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, OR LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION) ARISING OUT OF THE INSTALLATION OR USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SOFTWARE, OR FOR ANY CLAIM BY ANY OTHER PARTY, EVEN IF FORSETI HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. FORSETI'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHERWISE WITH RESPECT TO THE SOFTWARE OR OTHERWISE SHALL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNT OF THE LICENSE FEE PAID BY CUSTOMER FOR THE SOFTWARE. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY TO CUSTOMER.
- 8.2. Forseti is not responsible and assumes no liability for system errors or failures, or faulty transmissions or other telecommunications malfunctions resulting from any hardware or software failures of any kind, lost or unavailable network connections, or failed or incomplete computer transmissions, or for any problems or technical malfunction(s) of any network lines, computer on-line systems, servers or providers, computer equipment, or on account of technical problems or traffic congestion on the Internet, or at our Web site, or any combination thereof, including any injury or damage to the Customer, Customer's computer or any other person's computer related to or resulting from downloading the Software or any other material.

9. Confidentiality

- 9.1. Definition of Confidential Information. For the purposes of the End User License Agreement, "Confidential Information" means any business, technical, or other data, materials, documents, and other information that either Party discloses to the other Party, in writing, orally, or by any other means, including disclosures like computer programs, code, algorithms, data, know-how, formulas, processes, ideas, inventions (whether patentable or not), schematics and other technical, business, financial, and product development plans, names and expertise of employees and consultants, and customer lists. For the purposes of the End User License Agreement, the Software Documentation and all source code, object code, data, and other aspects of the Forseti proprietary components of the Software and Feed Service are and will be Forseti's Confidential Information, regardless of whether it is marked as such.
- 9.2. Personally Identifiable Information. Unless required to disclose by applicable law, Forseti will not disseminate or share any personally identifiable information or client identifying sensitive data entered onto the Forseti software system by the Customer. All personally identifiable information will remain confidential with restricted access granted only to those the Customer deems appropriate or those with a need to know.
- 9.3. Restrictions on Use and Disclosure. Neither Party will disclose or use the other Party's Confidential Information without the prior written consent of such other Party. In addition, each Party agrees to maintain in confidence and protect the other Party's Confidential Information using at least the same degree of care as it uses for its own information of a similar nature, but in all events at least a reasonable degree of care. Each Party agrees to take all reasonable precautions to prevent any unauthorized disclosure of the other Party's Confidential Information, including, without limitation, disclosing Confidential Information only to its Representatives (i) having a need to know such information for purposes of performing such Party's duties and obligations under, and exercising such Party's rights hereunder in accordance with the terms and conditions of, the End User License Agreement; (ii) who are bound to such Party under appropriate written agreements that impose on such Representatives non-disclosure and restricted use obligations with respect to the other Party's Confidential Information that are at least as stringent as those imposed on such Party herein; and (iii) who are informed of the obligations imposed on such Party under this Article 8 (Confidentiality). Each Party is liable to the other Party for all acts and omissions of such Party's Representatives in connection with the End User License Agreement and all Order Forms, including without limitation any such acts and omissions, which, if performed or not performed, as the case may be, by such Party would constitute a breach of or default under the End User License Agreement or an Order Form by such Party. The foregoing obligations will not restrict either Party from disclosing Confidential Information of the other Party pursuant to the order or requirement of a court, administrative agency, or other governmental body; provided, however, that, to the extent not prohibited by such order, requirement, or applicable law, the Party required to make such a disclosure (i) shall give reasonable notice to the other Party to enable such other Party to contest such order or requirement and (ii) shall reasonably cooperate with such other Party, at such other Party's sole expense, in connection therewith. The provisions of this Article 8 (Confidentiality) will survive the termination or expiration of the End User License Agreement.

9.4. Exclusions. The non-disclosure and restricted use obligations set forth in Article 8 (Confidentiality) will not apply with respect to any Confidential Information that: (i) is or becomes publicly known through no fault of the receiving Party; (ii) is rightfully known or becomes rightfully known to the receiving Party without disclosure, use, or proprietary restriction from a source, other than the disclosing Party, who has a lawful right to disclose it; (iii) is approved by the disclosing Party for disclosure without restriction in a written document which is signed prior to such disclosure by a duly authorized officer of such disclosing Party; or (iv) the receiving Party independently develops without access to or use of the other Party's Confidential Information and (v) Subject to California Public Records Request (CPRA).

10. Term and Termination

- End User License Agreement Term. The term of the End User License Agreement commences on the End User License Agreement Effective Date and will continue in effect until its expiration or termination pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions hereof ("Term"); provided, however, that, if the End User License Agreement expires or is terminated (other than by Forseti pursuant to Section 9.4 (Termination for Material Breach) hereof) before the expiration or termination of any then-current Subscription Term under an applicable then-current Order Form(s), then such Order Form(s) will remain in full force and effect, and the terms and conditions of the End User License Agreement shall remain in full force and effect solely for purposes of, and only to the extent incorporated by reference in, such Order Form(s), subject to the respective terms and conditions thereof; provided further, however, that, for any such termination hereof by Forseti pursuant to Section 9.4 (Termination for Material Breach), Forseti shall have the right, but not the obligation, to immediately terminate any or all then-current Order Form(s) and related Subscriptions without further obligation or liability to Customer. Except to the extent expressly provided otherwise in the End User License Agreement, any and all rights granted to Customer in the End User License Agreement shall terminate immediately upon any termination or expiration hereof.
- 10.2. Subscription Term. The initial term of each Subscription shall begin on the effective date of the applicable Order Form ("Order Form Effective Date") and, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the provisions hereof or thereof, shall continue for 1 year ("Subscription Initial Term"). Immediately upon expiration of the applicable Subscription Initial Term, the applicable Subscription shall automatically renew for additional consecutive terms of one (1) year each (each a "Subscription Renewal Term" and together with the Subscription Initial Term, collectively, the "Subscription Term"), unless either Party gives the other Party written notice of its intent not to renew the applicable Subscription at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the then-current Subscription Term. Upon any expiration or termination of the applicable Subscription Term, Customer (i) immediately shall de-install and destroy all Forseti Property (and all copies thereof) in Customer's possession, custody, and/or control or otherwise provided to Customer for all such Subscriptions and (ii) immediately shall cease and desist from, and cause all its Users to cease and desist from, all access to and use of such Forseti Property for all such Subscriptions and (iii) shall certify in writing to Forseti as to such de-installation, destruction, and cessation promptly after completion thereof.

- 10.3. Notwithstanding any payment terms in the Licensor's Agreement, the Parties agree that the Customer shall have no payment obligation to Licensor for the term of the contract. Forseti acknowledges and agrees that it is providing a software license to the Customer pursuant to the terms in its License Agreement so long as the mutual obligations and responsibilities set forth in an agreement between Forseti and the Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence and a cooperative agreement between the Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence and the Customer remain in effect.
- 10.4. Termination of Order Form for Convenience. Either Party hereto may terminate an Order Form, with or without cause, upon at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other Party before the end of the then-current Subscription Term(s) designated in such Order Form, at which time all such Subscriptions under such Order Form also shall immediately terminate.
- 10.5. Termination for Material Breach. Either Party may terminate the End User License Agreement if the other Party materially breaches the End User License Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after the breaching Party receives written notice thereof from the non-breaching Party. In addition, (i) either Party may terminate the End User License Agreement immediately upon provision of written notice to the other Party of any breach by such other Party of such Party's obligations under Article 8 (Confidentiality) hereof and (ii) Forseti may terminate the End User License Agreement immediately upon written notice to Customer, in the event that Customer breaches any of the terms of the End User License Agreement relating to Forseti's intellectual property, including without limitation any noncompliance by Customer or any of its Representatives with any provision of Article 2 (License Grant; Ownership).
- Effect of Termination. When the End User License Agreement terminates or expires, Customer may not execute additional Order Forms; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section 9.1 (End User License Agreement Term) above in connection with any such terminations by Forseti pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof (Termination for Material Breach), any then-active Order Forms will remain in full force and effect, and the terms and conditions of the End User License Agreement will remain in full force and effect solely for purposes of, and only to the extent incorporated by reference in, any such Order Forms, subject to the respective terms and conditions thereof. Immediately upon the termination or expiration of an Order Form, as to that Order Form: (i) the Subscription Term for any Products provided under such Order Form immediately will terminate; (ii) Customer will no longer have the right to use such Products, and all Subscription Licenses therefor granted in the Order Form will automatically terminate; (iii) Customer must destroy all copies of such Products in its possession or control, and certify in writing to Forseti that it has done so; and (iv) Customer will promptly return to Forseti (or, if Forseti requests it, will destroy) all Confidential Information of Forseti provided to Customer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer may continue to access the Software for ninety (90) days after such termination or expiration for the sole purpose of removing Customer Content from the Software; provided, however, that in no event shall Customer use any Products on a production basis during that time.

10.7. Survival. The following provisions of the End User License Agreement shall survive any termination or expiration hereof: Section 2.4 and Articles 1, 4, and 6-10. In addition, any terms and conditions of the applicable Order Form, which by their nature reasonably should survive, will survive the termination or expiration of such Order Form.

11. General Provisions

- 11.1. Forseti may assign its rights, duties, and obligations pursuant to this Agreement to any entity (i) with which Forseti is affiliated, (ii) into which Forseti may be merged or reorganized or (iii) to which all or a portion of Forseti's capital stock, equity securities, or assets may be sold or assigned.
- 11.2. Assignment. Neither Party may assign or otherwise transfer the End User License Agreement, in whole or in part, without the other Party's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and any attempt to do so will be null and void, except that Forseti may assign or otherwise transfer the End User License Agreement, in whole or in part, upon notice to Customer but without Customer's consent, in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, consolidation, or sale of all or substantially all of Forseti's business or assets relating to the subject matter hereof. A change of control of a Party shall constitute an assignment by such Party for purposes of this Section 10.3 (Assignment).
- 11.3. Notices. Unless otherwise stated herein, any notice, request, demand or other communication under the End User License Agreement must be in writing (e-mail is acceptable), must reference the End User License Agreement, and will be deemed to be properly given: (i) upon receipt, if delivered personally; (ii) one (1) business day following confirmation of receipt by the intended recipient, if by e-mail; (iii) five (5) business days after it is sent by registered or certified mail, with written confirmation of receipt and email; or (iv) three (3) business days after deposit with an internationally recognized express courier and email, with written confirmation of receipt. Notices can be sent to the address(es) set forth in the End User License Agreement, unless a Party notifies the other Party that those addresses have changed.
- 11.4. Force Majeure. Forseti will be excused from all failures and delays in connection with performing its obligations hereunder, as well as all liability associated therewith, arising from or relating to any causes or events beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation acts of God, natural disasters, strikes, lockouts, riots, acts of war, epidemics, governmental orders or power, telecommunication or network failures.
- 11.5. Entire Agreement. The End User License Agreement, including each and every Order Form and all Schedules, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings and agreements, whether oral or written, between the Parties with respect thereto. The terms or conditions of any document that Customer submits to Forseti that contains terms that differ from.

conflict or are inconsistent with, or are in addition to the terms of the End User License Agreement or any Order Form, or Schedule will be void and of no effect.

- 11.6. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Arizona (without reference to the conflict of law provisions).
- 11.7. Amendments; Order of Precedence. Forseti reserves the right to amend the End User License Agreement at any time and will update the terms and conditions thereof in the event of any such amendments. Each such amendment will take effect immediately upon the applicable update by Forseti, and Customer's continued use of any Forseti Property after such amendment takes effect shall constitute Customer's acceptance of such amendments. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the End User License Agreement and those of an Order Form, the Order Form will govern to the extent of such conflict but only with respect to the specific details of that Order Form. Otherwise, the End User License Agreement will govern with respect to any such conflict or inconsistency, and no amendment of the terms and conditions of the End User License Agreement or any Order Form will be binding upon Forseti unless such amendment (i) arises from the exercise of Forseti's right in the first sentence of this Section 10.7 (Amendments) or (ii) otherwise is set forth in a writing that is executed by the Parties' respective duly authorized representatives.
- 11.8. Severability. If any provision of the End User License Agreement is deemed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the Parties agree to permit such court to modify or reform the End User License Agreement to resolve such issue while giving as much effect as possible to the Parties' original intent with respect to the legal and non-legal effect of that provision. Any provision hereof that cannot be modified or reformed in this manner automatically will be deemed deleted here from, and the remaining provisions of the End User License Agreement will continue in full force and effect.
- 11.9. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Unless otherwise expressly and specifically stated herein, the terms of this End User License Agreement are intended to, and shall, be solely for the benefit of Forseti and Customer and do not create any rights in favor of any third party.
- 11.10. Titles Not to Affect Interpretation. The titles of Sections contained in this Agreement are for convenience only, and they neither form a part of this Agreement nor are they to be used in the construction or interpretation thereof.
